

International Student Financial Statement 2011

Before Certificates of Admission and Eligibility can be issued, certification of financial resources is required from all international students intending to apply for an M-1 visa. Two documents are required:

1. Completion and return of this Affidavit of Support, together with
2. The original (non-facsimile or photocopy) bank statement, dated within 3 months of the date you intend to begin your studies.

Two kinds of financial certification are required:

1. Documented funds for full first year educational and living expenses (US $ 31,968 for 2011) must be shown in a bank account or other readily convertible assets (excluding real estate or other fixed assets).
2. Projected funds in the amount of 5% more for each additional year is necessary to complete the program to which you are applying. The normal amount to complete the Internetwork Engineering program is 12 months.

If this form is received without the adequate and satisfactory projected funds it will delay receipt of the I-20. All questions on this form MUST be answered. Please see the instruction page for assistance.

Part I. Write in ink or type.

Read the following instructions carefully before completing and submitting this form.

Instructions:

Part I. Read and answer questions completely. Incomplete answers will delay receipt of your I-20.

Part II. In the first column, select the source(s) of your funding. In the columns headed Year 1 and Year 2 indicate the amount (in US dollars) from the selected source available for each year of study. Each sponsor must verify these amounts by signing the form. Be sure to include supplementary documents as indicated, and attach originals, not photocopies or faxes. The originals will be returned to you with your I-20 so that you can apply for your visa. I-20's will not be issued if your admissions registration fee has not been paid. This fee is currently $100 USD.

All documentation must be dated within 3 months of the date of initial enrollment at PC AGE. The admissions office has provided you with an estimate of annual educational and living expenses for international students for an academic year. You must document financial support equal to or greater than this amount. This estimate is subject to change without notice and will usually increase each year. Your signature on this form certifies that you understand that this fee is fixed and non-negotiable.

SOURCES OF FUNDING REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

First year funds must be documented and accurately reflect funds available and committed to your support. Subsequent year funds should be documented or projected, and must show the amount and source of funds which can be relied upon for support. Funding must be in US Dollars.

Personal/Family/ Funding/Sponsor

Signatures of all sponsors must appear on this form. Bank verification of funding must come in a separate statement of account. The statements must be original and be on the institution's letterhead/stationary.

Scholarship/Loans

Official, original scholarship from the institution awarding the scholarship or loan is required. The award letter must cite the name of the applicant, the amount of funding available for each year of study, the duration of the award (including beginning and ending dates) and the terms of the award.

Government or Employer Sponsorship

Official, original letter indicating amount of support and containing the same information as for "Scholarship" described above.

EXAMPLES OF ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTATION:

- Original, not faxed or photocopied statements of current accounts from the financial institution's letterhead/stationery.
- Original sponsor's statement of employment, on company letterhead, noting terms and salary (if in US only).

EXAMPLES OF UNACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTATION:

- Funds from an F-1 (international student) or J-1 (research scholar in the US)
- Funds from anticipated employment or assistance while a student
- Insurance policies or pension funds
- Real estate or other fixed assets
- Facsimile or photocopied financial documents
- Income tax forms, pay stubs or W2 forms
